4.1 Races are scheduled with succeeding races being started as soon as practical after the finish of the previous race if there is to be a succeeding race. The first scheduled class will be started using rule 26

4 The Start

4.1 The start for the first class in the pursuit race will be run in accordance with RRS 26. The class flag used will be numeral pennant 3. Thereafter the start will be staggered depending on PY of boats entered. At the briefing depending on the PY of your boat you will be assigned a number. This number corresponds to your start time relative to the first class of boat to start. If for example you are assigned the number 0 you will be the first class to start. If you are assigned the number 5 your start is 5 minutes after the start of the class that started at 0. As a warning there will be a sound signal at one minute to your scheduled start along with a notice board held aloft with your number on it. This number will be taken down at your start time. You will need to pay attention to this and to the start sequence. This will be clarified further at the briefing. This changes Rule 26. The average duration of the race will be 120 minutes. This may be changed on the day and will be communicated on the notice board and at the briefing

4.2 If there is to be a handicap race after the pursuit race numeral pennant 4 will be flown after the finish of the pursuit race

4.2 For the handicap race the start will be in run in accordance with RRS 26. The class flag used will be numeral pennant 3

5 The Start Line

5.1 The start line will be between a pole on the committee boat flying an orange flag and a pink pin end mark.

5 The Finish

5.1 The pursuit race will finish after designated time this will be marked by a long sound signal and the finishing positions will be determined by the crews on two ribs running down the course in parallel contrary to the direction of the race, you will be notified that you have finished by a short sound signal. Your final position is your position on the race course at that moment relative to all the other boats racing

5.2 The handicap race finish line will be between a pole on the committee boat flying a blue flag and a round pink mark. The handicap race will be decided on corrected times

6. Penalties

6.1 Rule P2.1 applies to first penalty and all subsequent penalties, this changes P2.2, P2.3 and P2.4
